World Telecommunication Day

"Partners in progress"

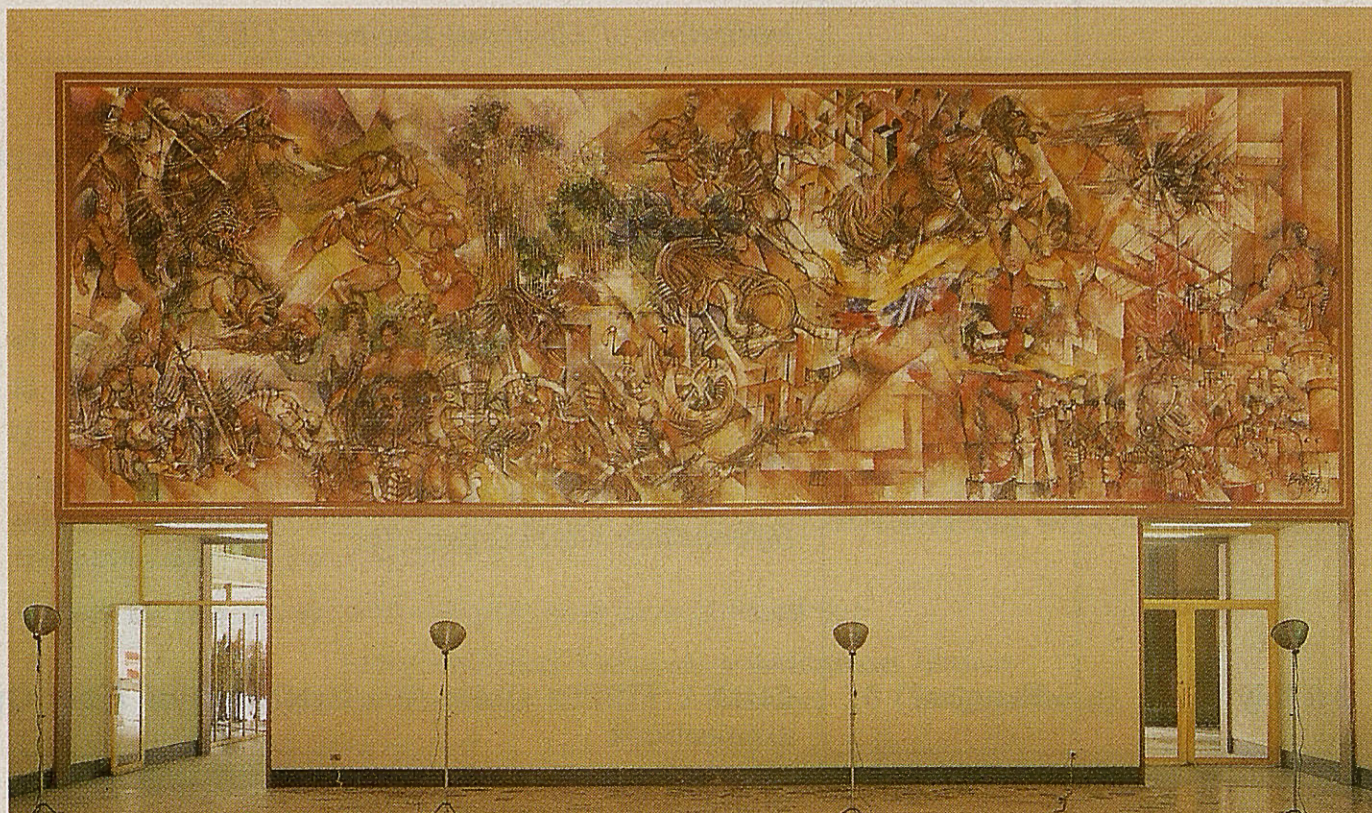

On World Telecommunication Day a number of countries and organizations sent congratulatory telegrammes to the Secretary-General of the ITU.

COLOMBIA

In 1986, the United Nations Information Centre at Bogota organized a week of commemorative celebrations in conjunction with the Colombian Ministry of Communications.

The main event was the unveiling of a mural by Edgar Bustos at a ceremony presided over by Nohemi Sanín, then Minister of Communications, and Bernal Vargas-Saborío, Director of the Centre.

The mural, which is 13.50 m long by 5.90 m high, is in the hall on the first floor of the Ministry of Communications (Murillo Toro building).
